PERSONAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT (IMPORTANT: Read these directions before completing this Statement)

If you are applying for individual credit in your own name and are relying on your own income, or assets and not the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit requested, or if this statement relates to your guaranty of the indebtedness of other person(s), firm(s), or corporation(s), complete only Section 1, 3 and 4.

If you are applying for individual credit but are relying on income from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance or on the income or assets of another person as a basis for repayment of the credit requested, complete all Sections. Provide information in Section 2 about the person whose alimony, support, or maintenance payments or income or assets you are relying on. Alimony, child support, or separate maintenance income need not be revealed if you do not wish to have it considered as a basis for repaying this obligation.

Important information about procedures for opening a new account:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. In all cases, protection of our customers' identity and confidentiality is our pledge to you.
